JUDSON CHOIR TO SING AT GRACE BAPTIST CHURCH

Grace Baptist Church will host a sacred and worshipful concert on Sunday, March 1, at 7:00 pm, featuring the Judson University Choir from Elgin, Illinois. There is no charge for the concert, but a free-will offering will be taken to support the choir as it travels through Kansas City, Branson, Rolla, St. Louis and back to Illinois during the school's spring break.

The Judson University Choir has enjoyed a long and fruitful ministry since the founding of the school in 1963. The Choir has served as one of the primary "faces" of the University for over 50 years, playing an especially crucial role in attracting new students to the campus and enhancing the school's commitment to Christian liberal arts education.

The Judson Choir is a worship-leading ensemble, whose concerts feature congregational participation, a diverse repertoire, and the use of a wide variety of instrumental accompaniment. They have worked with a number of contemporary Christian worship musicians and bands, including Chris August, Bob Bennett, The Brilliance, Michael Card, Citizen Way, and The Haygoods at Branson. The Choir tours nationally three times each school year and internationally every two years.

Dr. Warren Anderson, DWA, a 1986 graduate of Judson, directs the 50 voice choir along with his other duties as Director of the DeMoss Center for Worship in the Performing Arts. Named for Dennis and JoAnn Demoss, the Center equips the students of Judson University with the tools necessary to make their efforts, especially those related to the performing arts, holy and pleasing to God.

We hope you will make every effort to attend and that you will bring a friend to enjoy this unique event.

This Sunday, February 16, our pulpit guest will be Rev. Ben Shatz, a graduate of Southwest Baptist University and Midwestern Seminary. Ben is a local business-man with Office Depot but has served as pastor of Leeton Baptist Church and as Family Minister through the Chaplain's Office at Whiteman Air Force Base. We are grateful to Ben for filling in during our pastor's absence and thank Cassie Buhlig for such a good job last Sunday.

SUNDAY, MARCH 1, 9:00 AM

The Builders Sunday School Class will start a new curriculum on March 1. Uniting with the Seekers Class and under the leadership of Jack and Bonnie Hespelt, the class will work through a discipleship book published by Billy Graham Evangelistic Ministries and used extensively by Navigators on many college campuses. The class will address 30 different topics of the Christian faith, using basic discipleship tools of scripture memory and Bible study. Anyone is welcome to join this study.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 7:00 PM

Free Burma Rangers. Because our unique relationship with Burma through Adoniram Judson and our afternoon Karen congregation, we are announcing a movie showing at the Barrywoods AMC on Tuesday, February 25 at 7 pm. This documentary covers the ministry of the Eubanks family who trains medics for war-torn of Burma and Syria. Free Burma Rangers will help us understand more of the background from whence the Karens came to America and thus to Grace Baptist Church. ### WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 5:30 PM

On Wednesday evening, February 26, at our Wednesday meal, we will hear a report from Garmai Wilson on Nyetki School in Bong County, Liberia. Last August our church provided uniforms and school supplies in five blue barrels to help get this school started. This ministry has come to fruition and classes are now being held in the newly constructed building. Mary Webb and Vangie Webb were very helpful in getting this project going. Save February 26 on your calendar.

SUNDAY, MARCH 1, 7:00 PM

On Sunday evening, March 1, at 7:00 pm, Grace will host the Judson University Concert Choir on their spring break tour through the Midwest. Our leadership has determined it would be best to put them in a motel than try to find home-stays for 50 college students. Can you please host a student by making a $20 gift (or host 5 students with a $100 gift)? Your check can be made to Grace Baptist Church and given to Carol Ann Staley, Worship Chair and tour coordinator.

Dear Loved Ones,

Greeting. We are back in our beloved Haiti after almost three weeks of decompression in the States. In general, the situation in the country has largely improved. People are moving about their daily business.

The eye clinic continues its daily care. Every Tuesday is the surgery day, unless there is an emergency case on another day during the week. The crisis that suffered the country is now manifesting itself in poor people. Medical care, schooling fees and food is not reachable for many persons.

Our university got a break of a week. Now it is busy with the registration of all the students this week. Classes resume next week. The campus is almost empty except some few students who came from far away. Those girls are being taken care of by Mom Kihomi, their mother away from home.

Mom Kihomi started her home visitation. She goes out every 3 PM to return around 6:30 or 7:00. Some of the situations she sees break our hearts. Take for instance a shut in man who was our village wake up call. He always got up around 3 or 3:30 to go up and down the village with his loud mic waking all of us up for the morning prayer. Now, he has become very sick, blind, sleeping in his own pees, bed wounds have taken his failing body over. He has considerably lost weight. Two daughters with no means are powerlessly looking after their dying father. And one of the daughters is mentally disturbed. Many times, we wonder where is the church he faithfully served?

When Mom Kihomi goes to make those rounds, she takes with her all kinds of goods: food, blankets, clothes and some money. She became the chaplain, the counselor, the pastor, the diabetes and high blood pressure adviser/counselor.

Thank you for standing by our side to be the feet, and hands of the One who loves us all.

In Haiti,
Nzunga & Kihomi
