Volume 19-20

When will Grace Baptist Church reopen for in-person worship? This Sunday, June 14, at our regular worship time of 10:15.

Will we have to hear the same old preacher? Yes, Pastor Jerry Cain will continue our pilgrimage through Philippians. This Sunday we will focus on Philippians 4:1-9, one of the loftiest passages in the Bible. The new sound system will be up and running which, we hope, will improve Rev. Cain's preaching.

Can I have a cup of coffee and a donut in the narthex before worship? No, for public health reasons there will be no socializing or sitting in the narthex.

May I come to worship this Sunday if I had a cold last week? No, please stay home in your pajamas, read Philippians 4:1-9 aloud twice and take two aspirin.

How shall I give my $5000 check to Grace Baptist Church on Sunday? To protect us from the coronavirus, we will not pass the offering plates as usual. We do, however, appreciate your gift and will have a plate available for your donation.

I can hardly wait to see Bill Turnage, hug his neck and tell him how much I appreciated his song at Easter worship! No, please restrain your emotions and do not hug, kiss or shake hands with others with whom you worship this Sunday.

May I sit with Joe Hunter this Sunday morning at worship? You may sit close to Joe Hunter on specially marked pews but always stay six feet away from Joe and everyone else.

They made me wear a face mask to enter the pharmacy this week. And you will need to wear a face mask to worship at Grace this week. The face mask allows you to sing as loudly as you wish without embarrassment about your scratchy singing voice.

That makes me want to know how we will worship on Sunday. There will be no bulletins so we will be directed off the A/V screen. The chancel is large enough for 3 people maintaining the six feet rule, of which one must be Rev. Cain. Chris Foster will be leading the music and may have a helper as an instrumentalist and/or vocalist.

I have been running a fever off and on this week but I really want to come to worship. Jean and Jody will be our greeters and bouncers this Sunday taking forehead temps at the door. If you are running over 100.4, you will be sent home to put on your pajamas, read Philippians 4:1-9 aloud twice and take two aspirin.

I miss my church home and want to see the campus. Yes, please take time to walk around the grounds before or after worship. The Shepley garden is ablaze with day lilies and carpet flowers. There are new hosta and coral bells at the east entrance. And the south side roses are building for their second bloom. Roger's garden is not yet ready to harvest.

Please join us for worship at 10:15.
We will focus on God's goodness to us and try not to be distracted by the inconveniences of this pandemic.

Summer Camp Update

On Sunday, June 14, our summer camp families will meet at 9:00 a.m. for orientation about July 5-10. At this time we have two registrations with six inquiries. Six of our local neighborhood churches have been invited to help us fill our camp quota.

Neighborhood Prayers

Next Sunday, June 21, Pastor Cain will go to the New Kingdom of God and Restoration Church at 11:30 to have prayers of reconciliation at the conclusion of their first service back in their building. Members of Grace are welcome to join us for this neighborhood prayer during this time of social turmoil. Coronavirus cautions will be observed.
