The Changing Face of Evangelism & The Well-Being of the City

Saturday, February 6, 9-noon

St. Luke Joy Presbyterian Church (4301 NE Vivion Road)

This workshop is sponsored by Bridgebuilders, CRU and the Jesus Film Project., and is designed for lay people, pastors and mission leaders. The training focuses on motivation, theology, and tools for conversational evangelism. The 21st century church is ready for a paradigm shift from events to moments. The goal of the workshop is to equip every believer to have meaningful gospel conversations to make sharing your faith more natural.

Call the Church Office at 816-452-0212 to make your reservation. Covid protocols will be observed. Please join us.

The Gospel Messages of Mark

For the next several Sundays we will preach/teach our way through the Gospel of Mark. Since our Sunday school is in covid limbo, I wish to take our worship hour a little deeper into a study of the oldest and shortest gospel in the New Testament. Here is your weekly assignment based on the sermon from the previous Sunday:

1. Give a title to each chapter of Mark. (eg from 1/24 Jesus' Ministry Begins)
2. Identify a specific incident in that chapter of Mark. (eg from 1/24 Jesus is baptized)
3. Identify a specific verse to highlight in that chapter of Mark. (eg from 1/24 "This is my beloved son in whom I am well-pleased," v. 11)
4. Follow a specific thread through the Gospel of Mark such as: use of the word "immediately"; Jesus vs. demons and devils; Jesus vs. ecclesiastical and political leaders; places identified in this gospel; miracles reported in this gospel; parables recorded in this gospel; questions you would like to discuss; other threads of your own choosing.

I hope to give you a quick outline of the previous Sunday from which you can review the message on the webpage plus a passage to read for the coming Sunday. For January 31, we will read through Mark 2:1-17.

What was the outline for last Sunday, January 24, and Mark 1:1-13?

1. A good first sentence 1:1.
2. Three human voices affirmed Jesus' messiahship: Malachi, Isaiah, John the Baptist
3. Baptism and the divine voice that anointed Jesus' messiahship. God the Father.
4. Three spiritual voices that acknowledged Jesus' messiahship: Satan, the animals, the angels.

I look forward to seeing you this Sunday at 10:15!
